

Membership

Public Chairs' Forum Membership Year is from 1 April 2011 – March 2012. Pro rata payment is available for those joining throughout the membership year.

Seven Benefits of Membership for you and your organisation

As a member of the PCF, you will have opportunity to:

1. Provide information, advice and guidance to Government on the role of arm's length bodies in the delivery and reform of public services.
2. Contribute to and benefit from research projects aimed at supporting Chairs of public bodies in their roles.
3. Engage with high profile figures from across Government, business and the media through a series of unique and carefully tailored seminars and events.
4. Compare experiences and share problems and best practice in a secure and confidential environment.
5. Discuss issues of major significance with peers and with Government.
6. Meet and establish relationships with other Chairs from across the public sector, whom you may not normally have the opportunity to meet.
7. Have access to unique development opportunities for both yourself and members of your board.
